

MASTER CHOREOGRAPHY

Dance Academy

Fontys School of Fine and Performing Arts Tilburg

CALL FOR APPLICATION 2011

In September 2011 the Dance Academy will start with a two-year, part-time English HBO Master in Choreography. The course is designed to accommodate the needs of choreographers working in amateur, educational and professional fields; self-employed, freelance, or as employees of a professional company, academy, agency, institution or university. The programme focuses on the teaching of concepts, theories and principles in support of creative processes and offers a unique opportunity to extend creative, conceptual and intellectual skills, knowledge and attitudes.

The educational content is provided in 6 blocks of 2 weeks each, timetabled in Tilburg. Students will engage in choreographic workshops, lectures, seminars and debates to challenge, provoke and question both personal and shared positions. After each block, students return to their professional contexts to test and apply the newly-gained knowledge through independent study and distance learning.

Entry qualifications include:

- bachelor's degree in Dance or Choreography and/or proof of other relevant qualifications and experience;
- sufficient professional choreographic experience;
- sufficient command of the English language.
